FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PinPoint Resources Hires Tod Kijauskas to Lead Client Services Function

INDIANAPOLIS (May 16, 2006) – PinPoint Resources, a rapidly expanding full-service workforce solutions firm, today announced that it hired Tod Kijauskas in a strategic move to improve and scale up the company's service delivery model. This new addition to PinPoint's executive team will prepare the company for serving a national client base and enable it to effectively manage its fast-paced growth.

As vice president of client services, Kijauskas is responsible for developing and refining PinPoint's workforce management methodologies to create greater efficiencies and drive more tangible results for all of PinPoint's clients. This includes putting in place scalable processes for local, regional and national recruiting initiatives that are in high demand. In his new role, Kijauskas is also responsible for overseeing PinPoint's customer service, sales and marketing programs.

"Tod brings a wealth of experience in workforce management, recruitment process outsourcing and strategic hiring practices that will be of vital importance as PinPoint begins expanding and strengthening our client base," said Mark Hall, president and chief executive officer at PinPoint. "He is a true business process leader and workforce visionary. I am confident that his enthusiasm and client-centric approach will be an incredible asset to PinPoint and our clients."

Kijauskas brings to PinPoint a strong portfolio of clients and more than 16 years of executive level and hands-on management experience. Prior to joining the company, he served as co-founder and chief executive officer for Quest4 Solutions, a niche workforce solutions firm that provided human resources consulting and management services to Fortune 500 companies.

Before launching his HR consultancy business, Kijauskas worked for several corporations in the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic region serving in various sales, marketing, operations, recruitment and human resources capacities. Kijauskas holds a degree in communications from Cleveland State University, where he graduated with honors.
